LA CROSSE HOTTEST CITY IN COUNTRY

SUNDAY, 92 DEGREES

Chicago and Omaha Have Nearly as Warm Spell as Here; Warmest Day Since 1874

BATHING, SURF BOARD RIDING AND FISHING LURE HUNDREDS

Generally Fair Today; Tuesday Probably Showers and Cooler

The temperature at 2 p. m. Monday was 85 degrees, with indications that it would be cooler.

LA-CROSSE was the hottest spot in the United States on Sunday. Chicago and Omaha sweltered in a heat that was nearly as great and oppressive as here. The east and far west was comparatively cool while the southern states enjoyed a touch cooler Sunday than did the Upper Mississippi valley.

Hottest Since 1874

The highest temperature reached in La Crosse was 92 degrees at 3 p. m. This is the hottest May day since 1874. This record has been equaled May 22, 1914 and 1896 but never surpassed. Old Sol started about day break "laying them down and picking them up" and the mercury slowly but steadily mounted until 3 p. m. when the peak was reached.

The forecast for today is generally fair with showers and cooler. Tuesday probably has moved into La Crosse nearly a month ahead of time, if the official opening of summer, June 21, is taken as a criterion.

The excursions for the river, and country started Saturday afternoon. Excursions in La Crosse, not glued to the job started for an outing that meant "heating it" from the sweltering city. The bathing season was opened by hundreds, surf board riding was inaugurated and the picnic season started with a roar.

Exodus For River

Saturday afternoon scores of youths went bathing at the city bath house, although the bath house is not opened for the season. A half dozen canoe bathers and swimmers rode the river opposite Riverside park on surf boards, towed by fast motor boats.

Sunday the river was fairly alive with bathers, fishermen and boating parties. French slough was the mecca for many bathers and fishermen while equal numbers of both sought the upper shores of the Mississippi for fun and relief from the heat.

ELIMINATE PROPOSAL FOR NEW U. S. FLEET BASE

WASHINGTON.—Provisions in the naval appropriations bill for a new fleet base at Alameda, Cal., were stricken from the bill Monday in the senate. The vote was 40 against adoption and 3 in favor.

OUTLINES CONDITIONS ON WHICH U. S. RECOGNITION WILL BE ACCORDED NATION

Mexico Must Safeguard Interests of Americans Before Formal Relations Will be Resumed, Says Statement to be Submitted to Obregon

WASHINGTON, D. C.—A definite statement outlining the conditions upon which the United States would extend recognition to the Obregon government of Mexico has been prepared for submission to President Obregon. This statement, in the form of a memorandum, it was said Sunday night, will be delivered to President Obregon by George T. Summerlin, counselor of the American embassy at Mexico City, who is expected to leave for Mexico this week. He was summoned here a month ago by the secretary of state to give first hand information concerning the situation there. The conditions for recognition, it is understood, are practically identical with the recommendations made by Secretary Fall in his report at the last session of congress as chairman of a subcommittee of the senate foreign relations committee which investigated the Mexican question.

Dotted Line for Obregon

The important feature of the communication is said to be insistence that Obregon must sign some document giving assurances that Americans and their interests will be properly safeguarded in Mexico before the United States will consider the resumption of formal relations with that country.

If such assurances are given, it is believed that Henry P. Fletcher, under secretary of state, who was ambassador to Mexico for a time under the Wilson administration, until he resigned because of disapproval of that administration's policy toward Mexico, will be designated to assist in drafting a treaty.

The communication which Mr. Summerlin will deliver to Obregon contains nothing which can justify its being characterized as an ultimatum, but it is understood that the Mexican executive will be left in no doubt as to the determination of the American administration to see that American interests are not indefinitely discriminated against.

Fall Inspired Conditions

It is said to have been prepared not only with the knowledge of Secretary Fall but in collaboration with him. Among the conditions set forth are: Elimination of those provisions of article 27 of the Mexican constitution relating to the nationalization of the subsoil rights in so far as they affect the tenure of land to which title was obtained prior to the adoption of the constitution in May of 1917. Elimination of the provisions which deprive Americans of the right of diplomatic appeal in cases where property is acquired. Modification of the provisions which prevent Americans acquiring and owning property within a certain zone along the Mexican coasts and international boundaries.

Fair Trial for Americans

Assurance that article 33 of the constitution, providing for the expulsion of "pernicious foreigners," will not be applied to Americans without the filing of charges and the opportunity of a fair trial. Modification of the provisions governing religious worship in such manner that American clergy shall have the right to exercise the functions usual in their denominations. It is also suggested that the two governments agree to the creation of a mixed court for the adjudication of claims.

The Mexican question is said never to have been discussed at length at any meeting of President Harding's cabinet, but it is understood that careful consideration has been given it by the President and Secretaries Hughes, Fall and Hoover.

Some optimism is expressed by officials regarding Obregon's reception of the decision, but in other quarters the opinion prevails that he may submit counter proposals, and if they are rejected by the American government refuse definitely to sign the agreement.

May Cause Row at Home

It is pointed out that although Obregon desires recognition by the United States he probably will not seek it at the cost of being swept from the presidency by acceding to demands which may give opportunity for his political opponents at home to charge that he had "sold out" to the Americans.

Failure to sign the agreement on the other hand, would bring to Obregon, it is believed, almost as serious a danger, since there is another party beside his radical foes in congress comprising many of the old anti-Carranza revolutionary leaders, who are displeased with the present trend of the administration.

GREEN BAY MAN KILLED

GREEN BAY, Wis.—Antone J. Balza, was probably fatally injured Monday morning when he was struck by a south-bound Chicago & North-western train at the station here. According to eye-witnesses Balza walked directly in front of the train and was thrown to the station platform, suffering a fractured skull.

SIXTY PETITIONERS GET CITIZENSHIP

10 APPLICANTS FAIL

Examinations Conducted by F. W. Manthey Before Judge Higbee in Circuit Court

TWO APPLICANTS, 83 AND 78 YEARS OLD, GET THEIR PAPERS

Praises Vocational School for its Citizenship Class Work

SIXTY petitioners were admitted to citizenship and 10 applicants were denied, due principally to lack of knowledge of the fundamentals of United States government, by Judge Higbee in circuit court this morning. The examinations were conducted by F. W. Manthey, government examiner. Two of the oldest applicants were Jacob Herman, 83 years old, and Herman Wolf, 78 years old. Mr. Herman was born in Prussia and came to Dodge county in 1852. In 1862 he came to La Crosse county and took up a farm in Smith county. He farmed for 45 years on the same place moving into the city a few years ago. Mr. Herman's first vote was cast for Abraham Lincoln when the latter ran for re-election. Mr. Herman voted for Lincoln in the old Third ward school house. He has not missed many presidential elections since.

Came Here 64 Years Ago

Mr. Wolf came to La Crosse 64 years ago. His parents moved west soon after landing from Germany, arriving in Prairie du Chien. They came to La Crosse by boat as there were no railroads then. Mr. Wolf lived on a farm in Smith county for 53 years. His first presidential vote was cast for General Grant when the soldier first sought the presidency. Mr. Wolf proudly says he voted the republican ticket for president ever since with the exception of Grover Cleveland, and he voted for him both times. Mr. Wolf and Mr. Herman voted under the Wisconsin law that allowed immigrants to vote after they had taken out their first papers. This the fathers of both did soon after they reached this state.

One applicant was asked by Mr. Manthey, examiner, if he were an I. W. W. The petitioner promptly answered he was. Further question developed the fact he did not clearly understand what an I. W. W. was. He was told to continue his studies in American government and apply at some future date.

"Applicants frequently misunderstand questions while others do not understand the meaning of the simplest queries. I am reminded of one petitioner who was asked if he supported the federal constitution and he replied 'that he did not. Asked why, he said he already had a family of eight to support."

Praises Vocational school

"Twenty-five of those who were admitted to citizenship today are graduates of the night vocational school of which John B. Coleman is director. The class in citizenship is under Mr. Greenwald. Both he and Mr. Coleman deserve much credit for their excellent work, especially Mr. Greenwald who comes in direct contact with those seeking citizenship. A man usually passes the test when he has attended the La Crosse vocational school."

BUSY DAY'S PROGRAM FACES HARDING UPON ARRIVAL IN NEW YORK

PLACE U. S. ON BUSINESS BASIS AIM OF HARDING

NEW YORK.—The administration's purpose to place the federal government on a sound business basis, even at the cost of offending a "certain class of politicians," was reaffirmed by President Harding Saturday in an address here at a luncheon of the Academy of Political Science.

The task, the president declared, already had shown that to be successfully completed would require "persistent, determined, stony-hearted devotion to the public interest" without a trace of sympathy for the officeholder whose only excuse for drawing a salary is that he needs the money. Loss of a certain sort of prestige to the administration, Mr. Harding said, was certain to result though it might be compensated in the long run by a realization of the good accomplished for the general public.

Task a Long One

Recapitulating the work already done by the reorganization commission created by congress and by executive orders of the administration, the president said considerable progress was promised for the immediate future. He predicted that the reorganization task would be a long one, however, and asked for the co-operation and support of citizens everywhere and invited suggestions as to ways and means.

The part of the president's address follows in part:

"Everywhere we turn, we note that government has in recent time assumed a more complex relationship to the public than it ever sustained before. The mobilization of the man power, industrial forces and financial resources which was made necessary in war's exigencies, could only have been accomplished through the exertion of the utmost powers of government. These powers were exerted to the extreme limit, and stupendously important results were attained. As a result of that demonstration of government's capacity to force great results in emergencies, there has grown up a school of thought which assumes that even in time of peace the same autocratic authority might well be exercised in the general interest. Many men thoughtlessly urge that governments took over the control, even the conduct of many industries and facilities during the war; there followed a great increase in wages, a vast expansion of business activity. Therefore why not assume that continuance of such control and management in time of peace would enable continuance of the same liberality in compensation and profits, the same intense business activity."

Must Lighten Burden

"Those who look below the surface know that the things which governments accomplished during the war, were accomplished at a tremendous cost, for long; a cost that has left society burdened with debts which more generations of the future, in large measure, will have to pay. The present generation of government, this present generation of government, is immensely increased and it is for us now to find means of lightening these burdens. Every private enterprise which produces the efficiency and device which private enterprise is being applied in government affairs."

"The present organization of a few established principles of sound business organization will result in immediate economies and provide the means for every dollar of the taxpayer's money the government spends. Too much stress cannot be laid on the fact that economy and efficiency, it requires persistent, determined, stony-hearted devotion to the public interest. There must be no sacrifice of all sympathy for the place-holder whose real reason for keeping his position is that he wants the salary. Even administration which devotes itself reluctantly to such work must understand that it will lose a good deal of immediate loyalty on the part of a certain class of politicians, which will not be compensated to it at once in the appreciation of the public for the public will not have the deep, immediate interest in the public concern which will animate the person who finds himself being pried loose from the purse strings."

"Nevertheless, thankless and ungracious as the task will be for most of those who devote their efforts to it, it must and will be attacked. It is being attacked, with all determination."

BRITISH TO SEND ARMY TO INTERVENE

Allied Commission Demands that Both Sides Cease Military Operations in Upper Silesia

GERMANS READY TO ATTACK; POLES STRENGTHEN LINES

Korfanty Insurgents Expel Allied Authorities from Territory They Control

LONDON.—(By the Associated Press.)—The British government has decided to send troops to Silesia at an early date, it was announced Monday. The decision to send troops resulted from interchanges between Great Britain and France, and the British force will be sent to reinforce the allied contingents in Upper Silesia in the near future. The size of the force was not indicated, in the announcement, but it is understood that not less than four battalions will go, preferably the troops employed in Upper Silesia during the plebiscite and later withdrawn to the Rhine.

PARIS.—(By the Associated Press.)—The allied high commission in Upper Silesia has sent delegations to intervene with both the Germans and the Poles and endeavor to obtain the cessation of all military operations in that territory, according to French official dispatches. Each of the delegations is composed of representatives of France, Great Britain and Italy.

Germans Ready to Strike

LONDON.—By the Associated Press.—The correspondent of the London Times at Oppeln reporting German "irregular" military operations in Upper Silesia, declared that Germany has been concentrating forces and making preparations for a fortnight. The dispatch said, point to a determined effort to recover possession of Upper Silesia from the Poles.

The movement is regarded by the correspondent as far more serious than a mere reaction of the German population against the insurgents. He asserts that the inter-allied commission was unable to prevent the outbreak of fighting and is now just as powerless to intervene.

Apparently the Germans have regular army reserves at their disposal. The Polish insurgents, according to the dispatch, have been steadily consolidating their position and extending their control over the industrial districts in Silesia.

Poles Expel Allied Delegates

They are reported to have succeeded in starting work again in the mines, foundries and factories, and now are squeezing the allied authorities out of the towns they still occupy in order to complete their hold on the railway between Kattowitz and Gliwicz.

Every sort of pressure is being employed to compel the surrender of these two important towns. No food is being allowed to enter them but as this has not proved effective, the water and electricity supplies of Kattowitz were cut off yesterday.

Inhabitants of Beuthen and Kattowitz have approached their local district controllers, according to the dispatch, and have asked them to make terms with the insurgents, declaring they were tired of waiting for the allies to do something and were without confidence in the inter-allied commission's power to restore normal conditions or the ability of the local garrison to protect them if the insurgents should decide to take the towns by force.

The Times correspondent declares that while the Poles are masters in the industrial districts, the Germans exercise control over the northern and western parts of the plebiscite area. The frontier between Silesia and Germany has virtually ceased to exist, he says, and arms and reinforcements are brought in and Polish prisoners sent to Germany without hindrance.

DAYLIGHT SAVING ORDINANCE IS UP TO MAYOR BENTLEY

Signature of Executive of City and Publication Will Make Measure Operative

THE daylight saving ordinance, which will go into effect just as soon as the measure is signed by Mayor A. A. Bentley and published, will be submitted to the city executive for his signature by City Clerk Birnbaum today.

In view of the fact that the common council has failed at two meetings to award the contract for the city printer for the current year to the Tribune and Leader-Press, the low bidder, much speculation was rife in city hall circles today regarding the publication of the daylight saving ordinance.

Asked by City Clerk Birnbaum whether the ordinance was to be published in the Weekly Review, the newspaper in which Mayor Bentley is interested and which had the publication of the official city printing last year, City Attorney Oscar J. Swenness said he would rule on that question after the ordinance was signed.

Alderman F. W. Mahoney made the point at the last council meeting that the city's contract with the Weekly Review expired in April and contended that the city is now without an official paper inasmuch as the council had failed to award a contract for printing for the current year.

SPARTA AUTOIST COLLIDES WITH HOUSE ON SUNDAY

Gall Jones, Sparta, driving into the city Sunday evening, collided with a house being moved out State street in the neighborhood of the Green Bay railroad tracks about 9 o'clock Sunday evening, according to the police docketers Monday morning.

Although the radiator and motor of the car were damaged to considerable extent, Jones escaped without injury, it was said. Discussing the accident, Jones stated that the lantern placed on the house as a warning signal, was in such a position that he did not notice it until he had crashed into the structure.

DRIVE ON DRUGGIST LIQUOR PROFITEERS PLANNED BY KRAMER

WASHINGTON.—Druggists profiteering on whiskey sold for medical purposes are to receive the attention of the federal prohibition agents when the full force is again in the field in July, Commissioner Kramer said Monday.

Complaints have been received, he said, that whiskey bought on prescriptions for sick people had in some instances been found to have been adulterated with water and prune juice or other liquids sold at the price charged for the pure liquor. Anyone guilty of such methods, he added, could be prosecuted as a retailer and his selling permit revoked.

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—Two more balloons in addition to the four reported by Birmingham, sent word to St. Louis that they had landed in the national elimination race. They were the Ascender City, of California, Capt. John B. Berry, which landed at Smyrna, Tenn., and the Riverview club of St. Louis. Bernard von Hoffmann, which landed five miles north of Carthage, Tenn., at 6:40 Monday morning.

Other balloons down are the "Army No. 1," the "City of Akron," the "Chamber of Commerce" of St. Louis, and the "City of Birmingham." All were forced down Sunday near Nashville.

GOVERNOR BLAINE ASKS OBSERVANCE OF WISCONSIN DAY

MADISON, Wis.—Governor Blaine in a proclamation Monday morning urges people of the state to observe Wisconsin day, May 29 as the seventy-third anniversary of the admission of the state to the union. He asks that the history and development of the commonwealth be reviewed in appropriate ways.

"While the anniversary of statehood is not a legal holiday," the governor says, "it is proper and fitting that our schools, civic bodies, and other organizations, and the press of the state, review the history of our state and achievements, and thus the memory of the men and women who laid the foundation of our prosperity."

NIGHT PROWLER IS SHOT BY MINISTER

DETROIT, Mich.—Andrew Kulick, 37, was shot and seriously wounded by Rev. John Kovalsky, pastor of St. Cyril's Catholic church, early Monday, when with three others he is alleged to have attempted to break into the rectory in Hamtramck, a suburb. Father Kovalsky was not held. He said his objection to a certain dancer had led to threats against his life.

HONORS SOLDIER DEAD

NEW YORK.—"It must not be again."

With these solemn words, President Harding laid a wreath on the coffin of the first American soldier to die on German soil, at a funeral ceremony for 5,000 war dead at the army piers in Hoboken.

His voice husky and his eyes brimmed with tears, the president grazed at the rows of coffins. Then he said: "One hundred thousand sorrows are touching my heart. It must not be again. God grant that it will not be again. I do not pretend that the millennial days have come and that there will be no more war. I would wish a nation so powerful that none will dare to provoke its wrath."

Then in the army shed on the shores of the Hudson, with its stark, white-washed walls, there fell a silence profound and deep. Mrs. Harding could be seen weeping softly as she looked upon the flag-draped coffin attacked, with all determination.

BADGER ROAD ENGINEER TOO FRIENDLY WITH CEMENT TRUST CHARGES ILLINOIS GOVERNOR

Declares Hirst Speech Was Slap at State of Illinois; Suggests Co-operation to Break Backbone of Combination

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—"Tend to your own knitting—and good roads, and watch out for the cement trust."

That is what the Governor of Illinois said to the Governor of Wisconsin in a letter Saturday night.

The late of Len Small, chief executive of the Sucker state, was aroused by statements credited to A. R. Hirst, Wisconsin's chief highway engineer, at a banquet of the Portland Cement company of Chicago recently.

Hirst, according to the quotation, referred to Governor Small's refusal to let contracts for improvement of roads in Illinois because of bids being too high, saying:

"Highway work must be divorced from politics. When a politician sets himself up as a sole arbiter of expenditures for highway construction, he is throwing a monkey wrench into the machinery of a department which is operating on an efficient and economical basis."

Writes to Blaine
Small took the case up with Hirst's boss, Governor John J. Blaine of the Badger state, in his letter Saturday night. "The Illinois executive suggested that it might be more fitting if the highway engineer of Wisconsin should busy himself as we in Illinois are doing, in an effort to break the backbone of the cement trust, rather than breaking bread with the Portland Cement association, some members of which are under indictment for making an illegal combination in restraint of trade, which, in plain American English means criminal profiteering."

Small said it also seemed to him that it would be "more appropriate for a state road official paid a salary by the people to serve the public, to resist the blandishments of the criminal profiteers and those who are holding up and robbing the people for road material, rather than to be banqueting with the kings of the cement trust and condemning our efforts to save the people's money and prevent their further robbery."

Too Friendly With Trust
The letter censured the Wisconsin governor that the writer was sure that "Mr. Hirst sat at the banquet board of the cement kings and spoke their words, build roads now regardless of cost, not as your representative of the people of Wisconsin, who employ him, but as a speaker for the Portland Cement association, and not for you, I am satisfied."

Governor Small reviewed the steps which he had taken in the Illinois road building situation. He said the people of Illinois were anxious to have roads built quickly, "but it is the cement trust that demands they be built regardless of cost."

He said that recently Hirst informed him that Wisconsin would build 200 miles of roads this year at a cost of about $35,000 a mile.

He told of opening bids in February for road work, the low bid for which was $38,152 and the highest $41,350.

Road Bids Too High
"These figures were startlingly similar to those used by Mr. Hirst," Governor Small said. "We rejected all bids. He told the bidders that every dollar spent for roads had to go into roads and not into the pockets of the profiteers. We told them that the people of Illinois, with falling prices and cheaper farm products, could not afford to pay more than $30,000 a mile."

"We advertised again for bids over the same roads, with exactly the same specifications, and the bids were opened May 18. The contract was let for $28,170 per mile, road complete, including all material. We saved the members of the Portland Cement association. But the plan that the people's money be spent now for roads, regardless of cost, will find little sympathy, I am sure, with the taxpayers of Illinois or Wisconsin."

Without Foundation
MADISON, Wis.—Wisconsin officials are likely to disregard as without foundation the accusations of Governor Len Small of Illinois that A. R. Hirst, chief highway engineer of Wisconsin, is in league with the Portland Cement association. Governor Small, in a letter received by Governor

John J. Blaine, attacks statements of Mr. Hirst made in an address on highway administration before that organization last Tuesday.

The Illinois governor, referring to remarks of Hirst that "when a state has from $80,000,000 to $100,000,000 to spend for highway construction, it immediately has the attention of new Tammanies and other political machines," took the statement as referring to his administration and told Governor Blaine to "tend to your own knitting—and good roads and watch out for the cement trust."

It is pointed out here that the letter of Governor Blaine has no control over the highway engineer, who works under a highway commission of three members, one appointed each of two years and serving for a six-year term. The highway commission rather than Governor Blaine, is in control.

Governor Blaine points out that he has no control over the administrative officials working under commissions, and lets it be known that in his opinion there is no ground for the statement of the Illinois governor.

Wisconsin has dropped most of its concrete construction for the year and is depending almost entirely on gravel, due to the advice of Engineer Hirst. This is said to show that there is no effort to push concrete road building for any cement association.

Scales in the United States bureau of standards are graduated to read to one millionth part of a grain.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY BROWN'S IN TOWN GIVEN ON TUESDAY

The High Junior Banquet-Reception Recently Given in Gymnasium Happy Affair

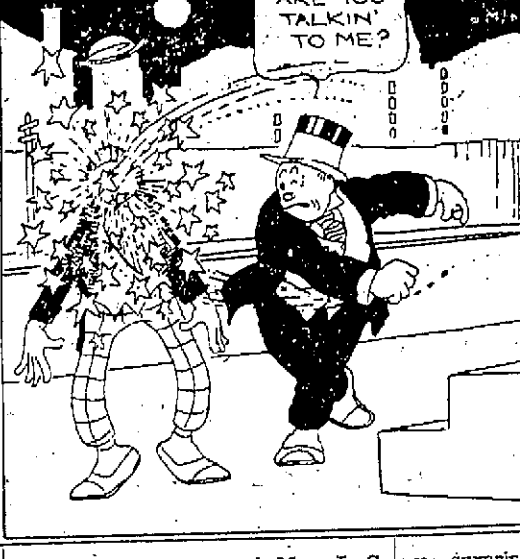

RUSHFORD, Minn.—The Senior class of the Lewiston, Minn., High school presented the play "Brown's in Town," to a large and appreciative audience, at the Rushford opera house last Tuesday evening. The play which was a clever, three-act comedy, was directed by Miss Helen Druley, of the Lewiston H. S. faculty. The plot centers about one Dick Preston, who desires to announce to his father his marriage to Loty Leonard but hopes are dashed when the father forbids the son to marry until he is twenty-five. Dick keeps the marriage secret and thereby gets into many difficulties, from which he tries to escape by assuming the name of Brown. The cast of the play is:

Dick Preston, the son, Horace Zimmerman
Abel Preston, the father, David Daley
Arthur Howard, a dentist, George Nussloch Worth Carew, gentleman of leisure, Orville Landis Suzanne Dacre, who knows a thing or two, Hedwig Strehlow
Lettie, Dick's wife, Anna Ratoth
Freda Von Hollenbeck, German heiress, Amanda Roth
Primrose, cook with a reputation, Hazel Landis Pollock, the gardener, Edward Kreuzke

All in the cast took their parts with an enthusiasm that brought excellent results. The natural and unaffected manner in which the lines were interpreted brought well-deserved applause at the drop of the curtain upon each act.

The Junior reception, given recently at the gymnasium of the H. S. building, is even yet being talked about by those present. The room was tastefully decorated with masses of pine, interspersed with crepe paper streamers of red and white, the class colors. Table decorations consisted of a large central bowl of red tulips, candles and crimson shades, also boxes of dairy crab-apple blossoms.

At each cover was placed a fringed May basket of red and white filled with nuts, a song-sheet for the "sing-fest" after the banquet; also a program of the toasts, the lettering upon these last being done by hand. The menu consisted of fruit cocktail and wafers; potato-apples, cold tongue creamed peas in timbals; Parker House rolls, pineapple ice cream with chocolate sauce, angel-food, chocolate cakes and coffee. La Vaughn Cuswell acted as toast-mistress. Geo. Jutrud, President of the city school board, was a specially invited guest and gave a short talk. After the banquet, the entire party went over by auto to Winona where, at the Opera House, all again thoroughly enjoyed themselves. Plans for Commencement exercises are nearing completion. The Senior Class Play was given April 22nd; the Baccalaureate services will take place at the Rushford opera house on the evening of Sunday, May 29th; with President Cotton, of the La Crosse Normal, giving the address. Commencement exercises will be held at the opera house on the evening of Friday, June 3rd.

Three Motors to a Mile of Road

IN the United States there are three motor vehicles for every mile of highway, and this includes all our unimproved roads.

The Federal Bureau of Public Roads estimates that the vehicle use of the public roads in the agricultural districts has increased 500 percent during the past 5 years; also that 15 percent of the main highway traffic is carried by motor truck.

Roads built even 10 years ago were not intended to withstand the impact of modern motor vehicles passing in a steady stream. The modern road must be built to withstand this tremendous shock.

For years the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has been producing material which has been used to provide many miles of roads throughout the Middle West with cushion tops of paving asphalt—protecting the highways of town and country against the mighty shocks of modern traffic.

Good roads are a prime essential to national prosperity. The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) in creating a road covering of proved quality, is playing a vital part in the development of the Middle West.

Stanolind Paving Asphalt is refined from petroleum by distillation with steam agitation. It is an asphaltic cement of the very highest quality. It was developed to conform to the needs of the modern highway as determined by highway engineers working under actual road conditions in the Middle West.

In working out problems of highway construction to meet modern conditions, the Company is prepared to cooperate with any corporation, or engineer, engaged in road construction.

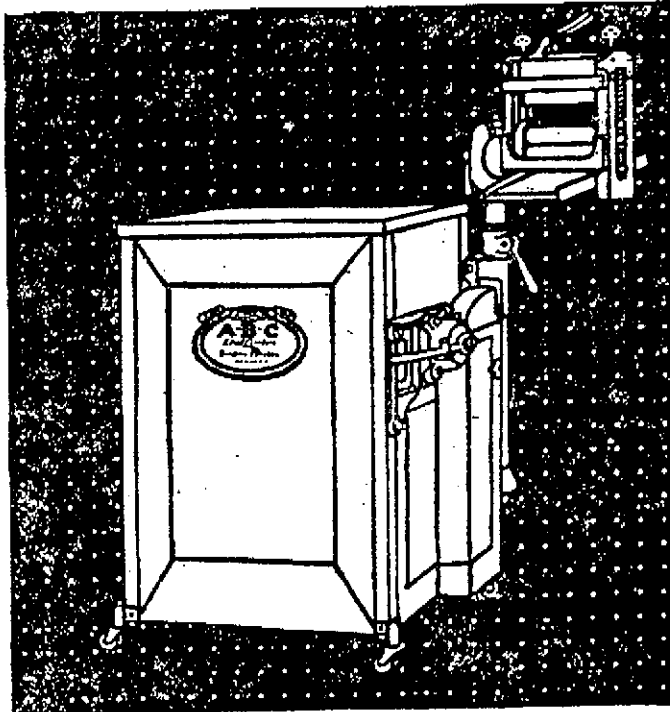

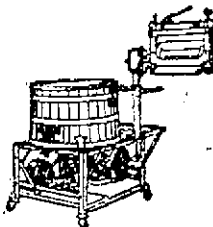

In the production of Stanolind Paving Asphalt, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has added one more useful product to the long list of its achievements.

Stanolind Paving Asphalt in itself is essentially useful, and by reason of its manufacture as a by-product of petroleum, the Company has been able to hold down the cost of manufacture of Red Crown Gasoline, Perfection Kerosene, Polarine Lubricating Oils, and other major products, without disturbing their high quality, thereby exerting a deterrent influence on increasing the selling price of these products, which accrues directly to your individual benefit.

IMPORTANT MEASURES ON WEEK'S CALENDAR IN THE LEGISLATURE

Some of Session's Big Proposals to be Disposed of During the Coming Week

MARKETING BILL UP FOR CONSIDERATION IN ASSEMBLY

Wine and Beer, Recall, Unemployment also up for Action

MADISON, Wis.—May 25.—The most important bills of the session outside of appropriations and tax measures will go through the clearing house of the legislature this week. Calls of the house are looked for on Wednesday and Thursday when the big proposals are tickled and disposed of.

Light wines, and beer, teachers' retirement fund, modified political conventions, the marketing bill, legislative recall of appointive officers, unemployment insurance, and workmen's compensation, are a sample of the measures on the program which both houses of the legislature have to face.

In the upper house the substitute amendment for Senator Huber's unemployment bill will be accorded its first test of strength on the floor. Coming through from the committee for a unanimous recommendation for passage, friends are going to make a fight for favorable action, although admitting little likelihood of passage. In the assembly the administration marketing bill comes up Tuesday after having weathered the finance committee without any material changes. The lower house will also be asked to concur in the Senate amendment to C. E. Hanson's bill providing for a recall by a majority vote of the legislature of appointive officers. The bill as amended leaves final decision with the governor and provides the accused officials with the chance to get a second hearing if convicted by the legislature.

The Sachjen bill increasing the indemnities under the workmen's compensation law will meet with opposition on final passage. Engrossed in the assembly without a record vote, conservative leaders in the Senate will make a determined effort to defeat the bill Wednesday. The main feature of the measure is increase in weekly compensation permitted from $14.63 to $19.50.

Equally hard fought will be the contest over the anti-professing bill proposed by the attorney general, and which is being opposed by the progressive group in the assembly.

The attempt on the part of Assemblyman Lueders to revive his bill providing for a modified system of party conventions will also be decided on Thursday. The vote by which this bill was called was reconsidered, and it is the intention of Lueders to offer amendment in hope of effecting a compromise. La Follette readers oppose the measure.

The long drawn out controversy in the assembly over the Fowler normal school bill will also be settled on Thursday, when the Dahl substitute striking the heart out of the bill will come up for consideration. Normal schools are asking power to grant degrees in education based on four year terms, but this request is opposed by Assemblyman Dahl on the ground that the two year teacher's training course fills every present need.

PRESIDENT TAKES PART IN SERVICES FOR SOLDIER DEAD

Then the president continued:

"The Republic will never forget the sacrifice these men have made—whether they lie in the soil of the home-land or the crimsoned soil of the battlefield."

When the president had finished his brief address, he stepped forward, stopped in front of the coffin that had been selected to symbolize the army of dead surrounding him and laid upon it his wreath of roses and orchids.

There was another moment of silence. It was at the great piers, bustling with life as men went forth to death, had been turned to a tomb after the return of those who had survived.

The coffin decorated by presidential hand was a plate chronicling the fact that Joseph W. Guyton, Mich., private, Company I, 126th U. S. Infantry, had given his life for his country on May 24, 1918, in the Gildwater sector in Alsace.

In Name of the Nation

In placing the wreath on the casket the president said:

"In the name of the Republic I bestow this tribute upon the casket of the first soldier who perished on the soil of the enemy. This opportunity is not chosen for the purpose of suggestion of hatred in the American heart, for there is not hatred in the American heart, but I have chosen it because I am offering the tribute to one returned whose death on enemy soil marked the day when our civilization went face forward and the assault on our present day civilization knew it had failed. May 24, 1918, is the date on which this soldier was killed and the name is that of Joseph W. Guyton, Company I of the 126th Infantry, a resident patriot and hero of the state of Michigan of the United States of America."

The La Crosse postoffice will be well fortified against attacks by auto bandits when the consignment of fire-arms, web belts and holsters arrives here. The shipment is now on its way and is expected to arrive any day. It is expected that instruction of armed postal employees will follow the receipt of the fire-arms. In La Crosse revolvers will be carried by government truck chauffeurs, screen wagon drivers, mail messengers and others employed in the postoffice building.

THEY CAN'T GET IT!

BERLIN.—It's hard for German papers to realize that the former empire is now supposed to be a republic. The Berlin Kreuzzeitung, formerly a monarchist organ, carries on its title head a picture of the imperial black cross with the motto, "Forward with God for King and Fatherland." In dispatches describing the Kaiser's death and funeral the same newspaper referred to her as "her majesty, the empress and queen."

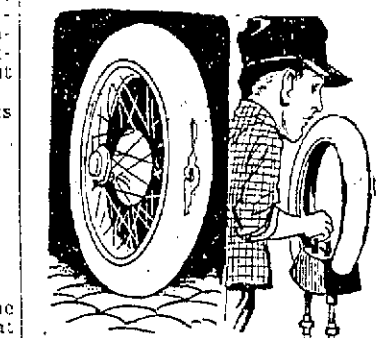

The Berlin Tageblatt quotes subscription, rate to "all colonies, possessions and protectorates of the German empire."

They Travel on Their Face.

The people of Tonga are said to be the most beautiful of all the Pacific island natives. They are also known as the "snobs of the Pacific." An English writer in a recent book says that when Queen Victoria's second son went to Australia the Tongans were very much hurt because he didn't visit their island, but they found two good reasons which satisfied them. One was that Tonga was so important that if the queen had sent any one it would have been her eldest son, and the second was that the ladies of Tonga were so beautiful that the queen was afraid she would get a Tongan daughter-in-law.

In New York there is a decided movement among hotel men and office-building management in favor of some laws which would make it impossible to chew gum and drop it on the floor or pavements of these structures. It is necessary to keep men constantly engaged in scraping up these wads which have been thus disposed of. In fact, there are several corporations and individuals whose business is solely that of removing chewing gum from the floors of these public places by annual contract.

LA CROSSE BALL CLUB WINS ELEVEN INNING BATTLE SUNDAY

ALLEN'S DRIVE IN ELEVENTH FRAME ENDS HARD CONTEST

Lansing Baseball Aggregation Suffers Defeat at Hands of Local Club, 4 to 3

BILL KRAUSE CONNECTS FOR ENTIRE DISTANCE

Lansing Left Gardener in Two Spectacular Catches

PLAYING a style of ball which forced the spectators to their feet and a game declared by many to be one of the best exhibitions seen in Copeland park, the La Crosse baseball club counted in the eleventh frame and defeated the strong Lansing aggregation from Lansing, Iowa, yesterday afternoon by a score of 4 to 3. Bill Krause lifted a homer in the last of the fifth, giving the locals a tone tally lead.

With the bases full in the local's half of the inning, Allen sent a drive into right field which was cause for an outburst and which terminated a long-contested battle throughout, giving the La Crosse club the long lead.

Miles Features
Features of the contest, which drew a large crowd to the Copeland stadium, were the spectacular catches by Miles, left fielder for the down-river aggregation, who made the difficult catch at a time when an error would have meant defeat for the visitors. Miles caught the day for his team in the sixth and ninth innings respectively. He was cheered and applauded each time as he returned to the visitors' pit from the field.

John Pichs, playing the position for the La Crosse aggregation, was also credited with a number of put outs in the left garden, nabbing three high ones in succession for the three outs in the first of the eighth inning.

Lansing Scores
Lansing started the scoring in their first inn, garnering two tallies in the frame as a result of touching the lead runner for four safeties. La Crosse failed to score for three frames.

Krause Homers
The visitors went scoreless in the last frame while the locals, in the 11th frame took the lead in scoring when Bill Krause, veteran of the aggregation, gave his companion player of the Lansing club a run for his money, picking the ball up from the bushes, as the local batsman whiffed the circuit for a home run.

However, the visitors came back with the same punch and evened up the score in the sixth inning. Starting the inning, L. Spinner, scratched away his bat and scored from second base on Gammitt's two base hit into the lead. The count then stood 1-0. The visitors made a strenuous attempt to score in the ninth frame, but two men were down, Nanks not a strike and advanced to second on the first ball. W. Spinner, however, failed to repeat with a hit on his 10th time at bat, and fled out to the third baseman, W. Spinner, coming at third for the down-river aggregation, started the visiting aggregation at bat, hitting four clean hits out of five chances.

Allen Connects
In the final frame, Krause started off with a single. Nanks followed with an intended sacrifice, however, scored for the ball rolled slowly over the third base line, and both runners were safe. "Chuck" followed with a strikeout. Weigert was hit by a pitched ball, filling the bases with but one down. Amid cheers a hit was all that was necessary, and stepped up and connected with a drive that would have been good for three bases, which ended the game.

WILE BROTHERS DEFEAT "Q-KIDS" 15 TO 12 SUNDAY
On Sunday afternoon the Wile Bros' baseball team defeated the "Q-Kids" by a score of 15 to 12. It was a close game all the way through, the "Q-Kids" making four runs in the eighth inning. Rabbitz hit the heavy ball, driving the ball a number of times into the bleachers.

The Wile Bros' team played the first game of Junior League tonight and will like to hear from other teams on Sunday as the only days they have to play outside of the league.

Next Sunday the Wile Bros. will face the Badgers.

NELSONS LOSE TO GENOA AGGREGATION ON SUNDAY, 6 TO 5

Fifth Inning Proves Disastrous for North Side Club; Genoans Score Six

LOCAL TEAM SCORES THREE DOUBLE PLAYS

"Ducky" Smith Garners Three Hits Out of Five Chances

The Nelson Clothing company baseball team lost to "Lefty" Sullivan and his Genoa comrades in the opener of a two game series at Genoa Sunday afternoon, 6 to 5.

Scoring twice in the initial frame and seeming capable of holding the home team in check at dangerous points, the locals bid fair to score a winner over the Genoans until the fifth frame when the down river club piled up a count of six, terminating their scoring. Ormond on the mound for the locals, allowed but two hits outside of the fatal fifth.

The local aggregation featured with three double plays, pulling them in the first, seventh and eighth frames. Genoa scored a double in the second inning. "Ducky" Smith featured with the stick for the Nelsons, getting three hits out of five times at bat. Beranek and Ormond chalked up one each for the remaining safeties. Genoa garnered six hits off Ormond.

The Genoa team comes here for a return match next Sunday. Calculation will be the opposition of the Nelsons on Decoration Day.

YANK VICTORIOUS IN ENGLISH GOLF TITLE TOURNAMENT

NOTABLE—By The Associated Press.—America was victorious in the initial contest of the English Amateur golf championship tournament here today when Robert T. (Robby) Jones of Atlanta, beat G. C. Manford of Laffness, New, in the opening round 3 up and 2 to play.

About two hundred early risers were on the links at 8:30 o'clock when Jones drove off the first ball, driving down the middle of the course, while Manford, his opponent, pulled into rough at the end of the first hole.

Manford missed a short putt and lost 3 to 4, Jones turning one up, having gone out in 38 to his opponent's 40. The playing between the two was keen until the fifteenth where the American was two up. Manford was short reaching the green. Jones then took the sixteenth and the match.

Mr. Mader is a baseball fan from start to finish and is always found in a position where he can look 'em over at a game.

Weeks to Take Month's Vacation; Back Here Fair Week

That the Beach-Jones Stock company will bring its engagement in La Crosse to a close a week from today is the announcement of the company's manager. "It's vacation time," he explained.

"We've been out for 47 weeks without a lay-off," said Mr. Jones,
"and our people are tired and want a rest, particularly as the hot weather seems to have arrived. So we have decided to end our season next Monday, and the people will have a vacation until July. Then we will open with a solid year's bookings ahead of us. We will start in July in Fond du Lac, and we are booked for La Crosse again fair week."

"The Thief in the Night," which opened yesterday, "The Girl Without a Chance" and "Tess of the Storm Country" will be the closing bills for the Beach-Jones company. The first runs today and tomorrow, the second opens Wednesday and goes until Saturday, and Sunday and Monday
"Tess" will be given as the farewell offering.

MEANT GIFT TO BE USEFUL

"What a peculiar choice for a wedding present," remarked an Englishwoman, trying not to laugh, as she inspected a huge flatiron, which her charwoman had just purchased.

"Ain't it, ma'am?" said the charwoman. "It's my sister that's getting married, and I'm staying her for the gift she sent me for me on my wedding day."

"Did she send you something very ugly, then?"

"Dead, no, ma'am. Her's was a beautiful present. But, you see, ma'am, a little bird whispered to me that her future husband's a man of violent temper, and I thought I'd send her something that would be useful in case of family disputes. She has the straightest iron with a flatiron
I ever seed!"—(Houston Post.)

ville acts.

terfly Man," Jimmie Fawcett, vaudeville.

FAVERSHAM, STAGE STAR ON RIVOLI SCREEN

Two feature pictures and two acts of Orpheum vaudeville make up the unusually excellent bill at the Rivoli starting today. The pictures include Lillian Faversham in "The Man Who Lost Himself" and Larry Semon in "The Suitor." Faversham, the player who once delighted hundreds of the audience in "The Squaw Man" and "The Hawk," appears as an adventurous American who is "up against it" in London. A chance meeting in a hotel throws an opportunity his way which proves to be more than he bargained for. Overnight he becomes an English Earl. A situation which would have been quite pleasant had it not been complicated by the presence in London of the Earl's wife and relatives. Incident upon incident, the complications pile up on one another, but character wins out. For Victor Jones, of Philadelphia, proves to be a finer and nobler Earl of Rochester than Rochester could hope to be. There's many a dramatic situation, with enough comedy and romance intermingled to please the most fastidious.

There are many explosions in "The Suitor," the Larry Semon comedy, but none of them can equal the explosion of laughter which the delightfully preposterous picture play will provoke.
Larry Semon's courtship of a fair young heiress proceeds under extreme difficulties because, while she is ever ready to give him an affectionate welcome, her parents find more pleasure in having him thrown out of the house.
The Suitor remains irresistible, however, and overcomes all obstacles to his courtship in most amusing fashion.

GREAT SCREEN LOVER OPENS AT MAJESTIC

Lew Cody will be seen in his latest success, "The Butterfly Man," the screen adaptation of George Barr McClure's famous novel at the Majestic Theatre, beginning today for a run of three days.

"The Butterfly Man" is a drama of ultra-fashionable society and Cody is seen in the role of Sedgewick Ryan, a waster and idler, who at the sacrifice of his mother and sisters and through sheer nerve has made himself a member of the "four hundred."
In order to obtain settings of unusual beauty and artistic perfection in keeping with the ultra-slim note of the story, the Gaumont company, which produced the picture, employed the services of two directors, Milton Monaco, a designer and mural decorator of note, who was awarded many medals at the San Francisco exposition, and Frank Ornstrom, graduate of art schools of the old and new worlds.

A strong cast supports Cody. He has no less than three leading women, Louise Lovely, Lillian Leslie and Know-lsey Levey. Six other well-known actresses are also in the cast.

"MADONNAS AND MEN"—CASTING

Edmund Lowe, Rayne Dean, Anders Randolf, Evan Raggio, and Gustav Von Seydlitz are some of the members of the all-star cast that portray the leading characters in the photoplay, "Madonnas and Men," at the Casino today and Tuesday. "Madonnas and Men" is an absorbing story for it deals with an ancient and modern times in such a startlingly dramatic way that the spectator is simply carried away and actually lives the lives of those he sees on the screen.

BUCK JONES—STRAND

Following his great success in "Just Pais," in which he received universal praise throughout the country, Buck Jones once more steps out in the role of a cowboy in his latest William Fox production, "The Big Punch."
The Strand today.

"The Big Punch" is an original story by Jules G. Furthman, and is described as an intensely appealing tale of the around a young man who is arrested for sheep rustling in which he had no part, is convicted and sent to prison for a term of five years. Following his release from prison, his efforts to "make good" furnish many thrilling incidents.

als at the San Francisco exposition,

OH, YE MEN

There are some things that a woman finds hard to forgive in her husband and master, and this is one:
Recently a husband in this city, whose record showed thirty years of married life with his one and only wife, came home, and after looking at her intently, was heard to murmur,
"Bluc."

"What did you say?" inquired the above-mentioned wife.

"Oh, nothing in particular," he replied, "but I saw an old friend today, you never met him; he stopped off between trains; and he wanted to know all about you; how you looked, even the color of your eyes, and blamed if I could remember. I told him brown."—Detroit Free-Press.

When is the Sun Set?

Several astronomers took it upon themselves to decide the question just when the sun had set, and they agreed that it was the instant when the upper edge of the sun reaches the horizon. At the same time, due account must be taken of the state of the atmosphere, the height above the sea level from which the setting sun is being observed and the nature of the horizon, whether it is bounded by hills or other lofty obstructions.

INGROWN TOE NAIL TURNS OUT ITSELF

A noted authority says that a few drops of "Outgro" upon the skin surrounding the ingrowing nail reduces inflammation and pain and so tenders the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can not penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost overnight.

"Outgro" is a harmless, antiseptic, manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.

OIL STOCKS STRONG

Mexican Petroleum Shows Marked Advance. Other Stocks Also Advance. NEW YORK—Mexican Petroleum was the dominant feature on the stock exchange Monday morning, gaining 4 1/2 points. Pan-American, General, 4 1/2 points. Tidelands, 4 1/2 points. The other stocks of the petroleum industry were among the most active. Bethlehem, Republic and Republic Steel rose 1 to 1 1/2. Tobacco 1 to 1 1/2 and American Smelting, Peoples Gas, American Lumber and various others. Buying of rails was restricted to the standard Pacific and coalers. Junior issues showing signs of their recent activity. Some disappointment was felt at the firmness of money rates, call loans holding at seven per cent.

The strength of Mexican Petroleum, which opened at a gain of 1 1/2 points and immediately extended its rise to three points, was the only noteworthy incident in the morning's dealings on the stock exchange. General Asphalt, Samatra, Central Leather, Virginia-Carolina Chemical and some other stocks showed improvement. Motors and specialties embracing food, leather and equipments were fractionally lower. A substantial reaction in British commodities from last action in the foreign exchange market. Further losses were sustained by the motor group later, especially in the case of the 4 1/2 per cent. Call money declined to 6 1/2 per cent. The close was irregular.

WHEAT AT HIGH MARK
CHICAGO, Ill.—Highest prices yet this season were reached Monday for the July delivery of wheat. Hot, dry weather and unfavorable crop reports gave a big boost to the market and caused heavy buying in which exporters are reported to be participating. Commission houses sold freely at 100 cents and the market absorbed. Opening quotations, which varied from 100 to 101 cents, advanced with May 100 to 101 and July 100 to 101. The market was moderate general setback and then a sharp advance all around. Later the advance was checked by a general decline in the prices of all commodities. Prices advanced on the upturn for more than a week. The close was justified by a net lower to 2 1/2 advance with May 100 to 101 and July 100 to 101. Corn hardened with wheat notwithstanding huge arrivals of corn here. After opening at 40 to 41 cents, including July 40 to 41 and the market gained a little more and then scored gains all around. Subsequently the market eased down and wheat declined unsustained at 36 to 37 cents. A slight advance with July 36 to 37 and the market gained a little more and then scored gains all around. Provisions were firmer with grain despite lower quotations on hogs.

MODERN PLAYLETS BY LOCAL AMATEURS AT ST. JOSEPH'S

BY D. O. COATE

It was another of those evenings of fine, new, one-act plays that Miss Rosalie Lyza is giving these of us in La Crosse who care for such, an opportunity to see.

St. Joseph's hall was comfortably filled Thursday evening, but ought to have been packed for the evening was a most enjoyable one; and besides, the money cleared was to go to a worthy cause—to help the orphanage.

Amateur? Yes, of course, but very entertaining and interesting from several angles. First, the three plays are all up-to-date in theme, representing the newest attitude of the dramatist toward life and the theme handled, and are the latest word on the technique and good drama structure; so that they were education from that angle.

The first play, "The Florist Shop," written by Winifred Hawbridge, is a prize-winning play, taking first prize from the Harvard club. This was perhaps its first production in the west, certainly first in La Crosse. It is a cross-section of life as it goes on in a flower shop; is clever in construction, most human in its appeal, and sparkling with wit—real fun, the kind it is good to hear an audience laugh at spontaneously. It has a fine climax, logically led up to, and plenty of emotion, though chiefly of the lighter sort. Matters never grow tensely serious, for it is good comedy throughout.

The stage was beautifully set, a most realistic, cheery flower-shop interior, the brightness of which was enhanced and artfully echoed by the beautiful outdoor picture of a lovely flowered boulevard on a luminous day.

Miss Preiser, as clerk, was good at all times, and her acting adequate. She filled her role in satisfactory fashion, except possibly in the matter of voice in the early part, where it seemed wanting in flexibility, seeming at times a bit declamatory most noticeable in her longer speeches. But what fine training this afforded her, and what fine feeling and intelligence she brought to her part! These are the big things. The rest is a matter of practice and experience.

William Krickbauer has undoubtedly talent and lived his part of "ordinary tough office boy." His acting was altogether convincing and pleasing.

Leo Mueller looked the conventionalized stage Jewish proprietor (though of course it is all a caricature on a race with a most proud and noble history) and acted it most of the time—only when he was at a loss for his lines. This likewise detracted a time or two from the effectiveness of George Gerling's part as the fiance of Miss Wells. But Mr. Gerling is showing marked improvement in stage deportment and general flexibility and adaptation. Good cheer, George! you are coming on finely. Another lover's part or two and you will be as easy and attractive, as socially at ease and as central as—well—who?—why, John Drew!

Of course, Miss Lyza was an adequate, always interesting and convincing Miss Wells, the sweet, talkative spinster. Her training in stage craft and her natural talent enable her to slip naturally and easily from one emotion to another. Her action goes before her words and readily suggests the lines, as all good playing does, not a little aided by her very mobile facial expression, which she uses to good effect.

In "Ten P. M." we saw a pretty little thesis play, semi-serious, and very realistic, portraying a sort of silliness that is sometimes found in early married life, when one of the couple is too anxious or too nervous to sit quietly and let good enough alone. The play's little preachment was evident enough. "Attractively set stage" was one's first thought as the curtains rose. It was homey and natural too, but we wondered whether the effect would not have been better if appearance had been sacrificed a little and the fireplace put at the side, or else the chairs turned about more so that at least one side of the faces might have been visible. In spite of this the lines were easily heard at all times, particularly Mr. Leo Mueller's, though they perhaps left a bit to be desired now and then in the way of inflection or interpretation, his "very well's" especially having occasionally an artificial or indifferent ring, as if he were talking down to friend wife, which he certainly did not mean to do as the context plainly showed. This little skit is by Mary Aldis of Chicago, the writer of several short plays in the February number of the Drama magazine. It, like the other two, is a royalty play.

The most poetic, and in some ways the most delightful of the three charming plays, was "The Maker of Dreams," a play filled with much beautiful symbolism and bits on life. There are numerous little flights of imagination and shrewd remarks, which kept the audience smiling and expectant. Again Miss Lyza's dainty grace and ease carried the play along, and her versatility in expression and tone made us forget a little heaviness in Pierrot. With so good an expression as he possesses for dreamy and meditative or even wise, he shrouded lines it is unfortunate that he isn't a bit lighter on his feet. Suppleness and nimble grace here were much needed to carry along the search for his ideal, which "Blue Bird" we were all glad he did finally—thanks to a good deal of kindly coaching from Pierrette and "pounding" it in by the Manufacturer—wake up and find at his own home. All his costume and career as actor suggest airiness and agility. Mr. Gerling was fine here if not as ardent a lover as we wished in the last scene of the Florist Shop. A bit more experience in—yes, either one, life or on the stage in such roles—will enable him to "warm up" a little at such places. This play was produced in Glasgow in 1911 and in London in 1912 by Hilda Trevelyan.

Not the least of the beneficial results of Miss Lyza's efforts to foster good community drama among us and to discover and train native talent is her work in stage settings and costumes. She illustrates for us the newer ideas that a play to be appropriately put on requires neither elaborate scenery nor elaborate costuming.

She designs her own settings, makes attractive costumes from cotton fabric yet with the most pleasing and satisfying results, with never a suggestion of sparseness or cheapness.

And what a fine chance this is for you who took the parts to do something really worth while for the community as well as for yourselves! To work under competent direction upon roles that are stimulating and worthy the best effort of anyone!

How much better than to be giving poor imitations of some star in some old so-called "Broadway success"! By the way these Broadway successes are not now so attractive to us as they used to be; nor does the term "Broadway Success" advertise as weightily as once it did. We are becoming more discriminating in our choice of plays. In fact we are finding out that there are theaters and theaters on Broadway, and that to be "Broadway Success" need not necessarily mean a play with structural, literary, or artistic merit; that it does not always even spell decency, as the people of New York themselves have long maintained. They resent the custom of heralding as Broadway success any sort of play that the thousands of New York's transient population flock nightly to see in all kinds of play houses. They say that these plays, often very worthless and risqué, are kept on the boards for long runs by the indiscriminating throngs from all over the United States, who bring more money than taste or culture to New York. They are often, New Yorkers maintain, the newly vulgar rich who are after experience and the name of having "done New York thoroughly"—cabarets, slums and all.

Here's to the success of "The Studio Players"! May they live long and prosper! Thank you: Come again!

Westerners Looking For Motorists
The people of the west are anticipating a great influx of tourists, probably to the number of 100,000, to the Yellowstone park. Already there are a great number of inquiries received by hotels and resort proprietors, and there are other indications that there will be a vast army of travelers. Last year there were 80,000 tourists in the Yellowstone park.

The "1900" was the first in the field—March 12, 1898, producing the first oscillating type of washer (hand washer). In 1905 the first electric oscillating type of washer. Their latest improvement, "THE CATARACT," taking the highest award at the PANAMA-PACIFIC EXPOSITION in 1915.

The 1900 Washer Company of Binghamton, N. Y., have for 23 years confined their efforts to the manufacture of the OSCILLATING TYPE of washing machine, continually improving the oscillating principle until now it stands alone in having the COMBINED EXCLUSIVE FEATURE of rocking and oscillating at the same time.

When Choosing a Washer

you must select from close to 200 different makes, although there are only four types. Of these there is only one in which there is no machinery in the tub to come in contact with the clothes, eliminating any possibility of wear—extracting the dirt harmlessly—prolonging the life of the fabric and making it possible to

Save in Still Another Way

which in money saved amounts to more than the weekly laundry bill.

IT'S CLEAN

Easily kept that way. TINNED-COPPER prevents soiling, the only metal that withstands the chemical action of soap suds and greasy water. All parts of the "1900" are easy to get at, no cabinet to hide the mechanism as there are only three gears in a case no larger than your fist.

IT IS DIFFERENT

Come in and see it. Creates the greatest water agitation of any washer made. That's what cleans clothes, it isn't the rubbing.

THE 1900 CATARACT

Stands peculiarly alone in this respect, placing it where it rightfully belongs—IN THE LEAD of more than 200 makes of washers—its superiority is evident.

IT'S CONVENIENT

NO STOOPING—always standing erect—large opening in the tub—plenty of elbow room. Tub always stops on center. Convenient wringer—no stretching to reach it—locks in any and all positions—can't sag.

BUILT UP TO A STANDARD

Made in only ONE SIZE — ONE WAY (for family use). That is why it is the lowest priced copper-washer (of its size) made, and like the copper wash-boiler the cheapest in the long run.

Our reputation is behind this washer with a guarantee of SATISFACTION OR YOUR MONEY BACK.
